

Beazer Homes Again Partners with the Marine Toys for Tots Foundation for Guess to Give Campaign

January 17, 2017

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 17, 2017-- Beazer Homes, one of the nation's largest home builders, partnered with the Marine Toys for Tots Foundation for a second year to collect toys and raise awareness of the group's mission to deliver hope to deserving children. The initiative resulted in a $10,000 donation for Toys for Tots, collected toys for over 2,000 children and spread awareness of the group's mission through the Guess to Give Contest.

"At Beazer Homes, we understand the holiday season can be a challenging time for those who may be dealing with their own personal struggles, and consequently, we are thrilled to have again partnered with the Marine Toys for Tots Foundation to have made the holidays a little easier for these individuals," said Kathi James, CMO. "Our goal for this project was to help give back to the communities in which we build and spread the joy of the holiday season; it is extremely rewarding to know that our team's efforts helped families celebrate in their own special ways."

Beazer engaged the public as well as its employees to assist with the campaign. Select Beazer sales centers and division offices collected toys and Visa gift cards were awarded to winning entrants of the Guess to Give social contest. Beazer partners with several national non-profits each year to further both groups' missions of enhancing community life.
