

Beazer Homes Earns 2017 ENERGY STAR® Partner of the Year – Sustained Excellence Award

April 14, 2017

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Apr. 14, 2017-- Beazer Homes (NYSE: BZH) has been named a 2017 ENERGY STAR Partner of the Year – Sustained Excellence Award winner for continued leadership in protecting our environment through superior energy efficiency achievements. Beazer's accomplishments will be recognized by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the U.S. Department of Energy in Washington, D.C. on April 26, 2017.

Beazer Homes, an ENERGY STAR partner since 1998, will be honored for continued leadership in superior new home construction energy efficiency.

"We're thrilled to be recognized for a third time by the EPA for our attention to energy efficient building practices," said Beazer Chief Executive Officer, Allan Merrill. "For nearly two decades Beazer has been qualifying homes through ENERGY STAR programs generating significant savings for our homeowners."

In 2015 alone, ENERGY STAR and its partners saved American businesses and consumers 503 billion kilowatt hours and $34 billion dollars on their energy bills, while achieving broad emission reductions.

The 2017 Partner of the Year – Sustained Excellence Awards are bestowed upon a diverse set of organizations that have demonstrated continued leadership in energy efficiency. Winners hail from small, family-owned businesses to Fortune 500 organizations – representing energy-efficient products, services, new homes, and buildings in the commercial, industrial, and public sectors.
