February 7, 2019

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 7, 2019-- Beazer Homes (NYSE: BZH), one of the nation's largest homebuilders, is excited to host the Get More national sales event, an annual opportunity for home buyers to take advantage of special incentives from Feb. 7 - 27.

"Our annual sales event is a celebration of what it means to get more in a new Beazer home," said Allan Merrill, president and CEO. "Now is the best time for our homebuyers to experience the Beazer difference while taking advantage of special savings only available once a year."

What does it mean to Get More with Beazer?

More floor plan flexibility. Your home should reflect the way you want to live. With Beazer's Choice Plans™, you can personalize the layout of primary living areas such as the kitchen and bathrooms, at no additional cost.

More lending options. Our Mortgage Choices program connects home buyers to a select group of lenders who consistently offer outstanding customer service, diverse home loan programs, and competitive rates and fees. More mortgage options mean buyers can find the "right" lender to meet their individual needs—and be ready to close on your home when it's ready.

More energy efficiency. Our homes meet and exceed the latest ENERGY STAR® standards. Every Beazer home in every community is tested and receives an individual ENERGY STAR® certification. This means your new Beazer home is built to conserve energy and reduce your monthly costs.
