

Beazer Homes USA, Inc. Announces Amendment to Exchange Offers

February 28, 2012

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 28, 2012-- Beazer Homes USA, Inc. (NYSE: BZH) announced today that it has amended the terms of its previously announced exchange offers for (i) any and all of its 7.50% Mandatory Convertible Subordinated Notes due 2013 (the "Notes") and (ii) any and all of its 7.25% Tangible Equity Units (the "Units" and, together with the Notes, the "Subject Securities"). The terms of each exchange offer are being amended to provide that holders of Subject Securities will not receive cash in lieu of fractional shares in the offer. Instead, in the event that an exchange yields a fractional share, in lieu of such fractional share, the Company will round up to the next whole share of the Company's common stock.

The Notes Exchange Offer

For each $25 principal amount of Notes validly tendered and accepted in the Notes exchange offer, the holder will receive 5.7348 shares of the Company's common stock. As of today's date, $57.5 million aggregate principal amount of Notes is outstanding.

On January 15, 2013, the mandatory conversion date of the Notes, holders would receive up to a maximum of 5.4348 shares per Note, depending on the trading price of the Company's common stock at such time. Accordingly, the Notes exchange offer allows tendering holders to receive the maximum number of shares of common stock they could receive on the mandatory conversion date, plus an additional 0.30 shares of common stock (not including any additional shares resulting from rounding up to the next whole share).

The Units Exchange Offer

For each Unit validly tendered and accepted in the Units exchange offer, the holder will receive 4.9029 shares of common stock. As of today's date, 3,000,000 Units are outstanding.

Each unit is comprised of (i) a prepaid stock purchase contract and (ii) a senior amortizing note due August 15, 2013. As of today's date, the amortizing notes have an aggregate principal balance of approximately $7.7 million. At maturity, holders of the prepaid stock purchase contracts would automatically receive up to a maximum of 4.3029 shares per contract, depending on the trading price of the Company's common stock at such time. Accordingly, the Units exchange offer allows tendering holders to receive the maximum number of shares of common stock they could receive at maturity, plus an additional 0.60 shares of common stock (not including any additional shares resulting from rounding up to the next whole share).

Additional Information

The exchange offers are scheduled to expire at 12:00 a.m., New York City time, on Monday, March 12, 2012, unless either is extended or terminated by the Company in its sole discretion. Tendered Subject Securities may be withdrawn at any time at or before, but not after, such time. The Company expects the settlement date to be promptly following the expiration date and is anticipated to be on March 20, 2012.

Except as to the requirements that the Registration Statement be declared effective by the SEC and that there be no stop orders suspending the effectiveness of such registration statement, which the Company will not waive, the Company may waive the conditions to either of the exchange offers set forth in the preliminary prospectus in its sole and absolute discretion. The exchange offers are not conditioned upon any minimum amount of the Subject Securities being tendered.

Subject to applicable law, the Company may extend or terminate either or both of the exchange offers at any time.
