Beazer Homes Names Nick Peacock Vice President, Lender Choices

January 16, 2013

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 16, 2013-- Beazer Homes USA, Inc. today announced the appointment of Nick Peacock to Vice President, Lender Relations.

In this newly created position, Mr. Peacock will lead the Company's commitment to providing a range of preferred lender choices for Beazer's homebuyers and more transparent competition between those lenders on the basis of customer service, mortgage programs and mortgage fees and rates.

"Requiring a small number of performance-screened and locally selected lenders, referred to as our preferred lenders, to compete for our homebuyers' business means every customer has the opportunity to secure the right mortgage for their individual circumstances," said Allan Merrill, president and chief executive officer of Beazer Homes. "I am pleased to welcome Mr. Peacock and the extensive experience and knowledge he brings to our team. His work will help simplify and enhance the financing process for our homebuyers."

Mr. Peacock has worked in the mortgage business for 26 years with experience working for various banks and lending institutions as well as part of the financing arms of other public builders. Mr. Peacock graduated cum laude from Middlebury College in Vermont with a bachelor of arts in economics.
