PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously disclosed, the Audit Committee of Beazer Homes USA, Inc. (the "Company") is conducting an independent internal investigation of the Company's mortgage origination business and related matters. To assist with the investigation, the Audit Committee retained independent legal counsel, who, in turn, retained independent forensic accountants. During the course of the investigation, the Company has discovered that its former Chief Accounting Officer may have caused reserves and other accrued liabilities, relating primarily to land development costs and costs to complete houses, to have been recorded in prior accounting periods in excess of amounts that would have been appropriate under generally accepted accounting principles. These reserves and other accrued liabilities, if reversed in subsequent accounting periods, could have been used to reduce the Company's operating expenses by amounts that would not have been appropriate under generally accepted accounting principles.

Independent counsel has issued preliminary updates to the Audit Committee concerning the status of the matters described above. The investigation is ongoing and the Company is not, at this time, able to predict or determine whether any adjustments will be required with respect to the Company's previously issued financial statements or whether the release of any portion of these reserves or accrued liabilities will have any impact on the Company's financial results for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2007. However, at this time, the Company does not believe that the amounts at issue with respect to these reserves and accrued liabilities during the quarterly and nine month periods ended June 30, 2006 and 2007 are quantitatively material. In addition, at present, the Company does not believe that the resolution of these issues will result in an adjustment to the Company's previously reported cash position.

The Audit Committee is continuing to examine these matters and was not able to make a final conclusion with respect thereto by August 9, 2007, the required filing date for the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2007. The Audit Committee and its independent counsel are working expeditiously to resolve these issues as soon as practicable.
